Since the Declaration of American Independence, who has ever witnessed men assembled in "a representative character voting by secret ballot?" Only in Los Angeles, to their eternal disgrace, has such a contemptible course been pursued, and that only in recent and degenerate days. Both parties have fallen into this error, and suits the duplex, two-faced, contemptible, the duplex, two-faced, contemptible, pot-house piece-makers, who recently to San Jose—and in the language of handle the machine. WE cheerfully admit the communi cation of "An Old Democrat" for the sake of saying that our reading leads us to the conclusion that the ballot has become to be considered the freeman's defence and safety from the machinations and oppressions of tyrancy. And it cost a long struggle to obtain it, although voting by ballot was known to some extent far back in ancient times. And the most ancient institution we now have, brought from the musty past of thousands of years ago, has the ballot to shield its membership, and it has so well proved its value that it is guarded with the most scrupulous care. Our forefathers when building a government that should guarantee the greatest number, and be as unlike the oppressive monarch ies of the old world as possible, gave us the ballot, pure and simple. And so well did it work that in 1830 the cation of "An Old Democrat" for the ies of the old world as possible, gave tion of colton. so well did it work that in 1830 the ancient Irish agitator and patriot, O Connell, got a following of t ventyone votes for the adoption of the sysballot was adopted with elaborate reg ulations to secure secreey.

In our own day and generation people to preserve the purity of the ballot, and leave the citizen entirely free to vote his own will. In some States the ballot has been enclosed in envelopes to prevent the ticket being known by those whom it was thought might desire to terrorize the elector. In California we guard the citizen by attempting to close the sapaper of a precisely uniform tint, and as wife, allowed up to and including they all be folded in a similar manner, and then further shield him from undue influence by leaving his approach to the ballot-box free his approach to the ballot-box free from interlopers and committee men It has worked well, and is the best poor humanity can devise to keep the devils of corruption and wickedness from dominating everything that

As to the matter and manner of choosing the delegates to the State Convention by the Democratic County Convention, to which we alknded, we have this to say, that we have Democratic authority for the assertion that a contract was made by George Hearst with a man whose ways political have cothing whatever in them of morality, o send from Los Arm. to send from Los Angeles county to the State Convention fifteen delegates who would vote for the said Hearst fo Governor. Every exertion was made to fi.l the contract. From the circumstance it is the best light we have, and contend it is not "unfair" to condemn the cvi. practices that have become common among Demogratic wire-pullers.

M. We-der's seconds were Thomas and Evans, while Maloney was handled by Lafferty and Burch. Thomas Brown was chosen as referee. Maloney's weight was one hundred and thirty-two and a half pounds and We-den tipped the scales at one hundred and twenty-eight pounds. He wore white breches and blue stockings and a beit of the same color. Madoney wore red white and blue. The fight had not ended, and the fight had not ended, and the chances then seemed decided in favor of Weeden.

LATER REPORT. tem was a description of the convention held here last Saturday. It says:
Shortly before the adjournment of the meeting of the D mocratic County Convention on Saturday last in Turnverein Hall, a member of the convention approached John D. Gall, one of the State delegates, and said, "I'll give you $500 for your proxy." The peaker was a pronounced Hearst man, and Mr. Gall replied, "You could not get it for $10,000." The same man then approached Capt. J. W. Smith, and offered him $500 for every delegate whom he could induce to vote for George Hearst in the State Convention, and five per cent, of the gross amount to Captain Smith for his commission.
Capt. Smith laughed at him, and the delegate, who is a wealthy man, made a similar proposition to Dr. Grattan, Chairman of the County Convention, and requested Dr. Grattan to repeat his offer publicly before the convention. This the chairman refused to do be to was a very delicate matter, and the amount offered is far below the present ion held here last Saturday. It says:

At the close of the fourth round the ring was taken possession of by an exton. This the chairman refused to do

Pass d in Reference to the Death o Hall of the Italian Mutual Benevole

Society of Los Angeles. To the Chairman of the Mass-n of French citizens assembled to take the initiatory steps toward the celebra tion of the national feast of the 14th of July:

Sin: The undersigned hastens by this means to express to all French citizens the sincere gratitude which our Society and the Italian Colony of Los Angeles are indebted for the spontaneous and genuine manifestations of sorrow expressed at your meeting on the 12th inst. in the great loss which Italy in particular and humanity in general has just sustained in the death of that grand hero, General Guiseppe Garibaldi. So few Italians residing in this city and county and a matter of impossibility to bring them together in the short space intervening from the time of his de th to the day of his funcial was the cause that a public demonstration of sorrow and respect could have be held and or to the day of ms funeral was the cause that a public demonstration of sorrow and respect could not be held, and on which we are sure that all Frenchmen here residing, as well as all liberal-ninded people, would have joined to de honor to the noble dead.

Accept then, you and all, our heart-felt gratitude for the sincere proof of symmathy shown.

EPISCOPAL SOCIAL

Pleasant Affair and who there to Enjoy it.

The elegant parlors of the mansion J. M. Griffith, Esq., were filled to over the Episcopal church, their consort and friends, who enjoyed the hospitalities to a degree seldom equalled. These gatherings of the Episcopil ladies are oming very popular. Their object is two-fold—to enjoy a social hour and to increase the building fund for the new church edifice the society contemplate the erection of at an early day. As the objects are thus commendable, the citizen who desires the social and architecture. tural improvement of the city will wish all future sociables as agreeable as was most enjoyable one last evening, presided over by the cordial people of the Griffith mansion.

preached very able and interesting sermons. Collections for education were taken, amounting to $75, at Pasadena and $50 at San Gabriel. A Sunday School concert in the evening at Pasadena was a pleasant affair.

Friday evening, June 9th, the Alhambra Sunday School, at San Gabriel, had a festival at the house of Mrs. Halstead. The school and friends were out in good numbers, and the refreshments, sociality and delightful home made a very enjoyable time.

The Methodists of the San Gabriel valley and their friends are going to unite in a basket picnic at Oak Grove on the Fourth of July. Arrangements are being made to furnish a good opportunity for all lovers of sociality and sobriety to have a very pleasant Fourth at this beautiful place. Here will be a chance for the people of Los Angeles to get out into the country, have a picnic, take a ride through Pasadena and San Gabriel, and have a celebration without dissipation.

Our present term of school expired our Friday last. Our teacher, Mrs. Zumwalt, acquitted herself well, giving both parents and public full satisfaction. I have heard her often praised by her scholars, and as a token of their love and respect, with some outside help.

her scholars, and as a token of their love and respect, with some outside help, presented her with a handsome illus-trated and costly-bound uble, which she was very much surprised with— they keeping her from knowing any-thing about it. She accepted the gift with due appreciation, for a few mo-ments too much overcome to reply to it with due appreciation, for a few mo-ments too much overcome to reply to it in words to express her thankfulness. Her farewell remarks were very touch-ing and few, hoping if never to meet ner pupils on this earth to meet in heaven, where the good book tanght them they would meet if they lived right. She then requested that they all sign their names in rotation, which they gladly compiled with and with they gladly compiled with and with good-byes and well-wishes all parted.
